

TENTATIVE ITINERARY

First Day

- 1:00 pm Arrival in Birmingham and join your Tour Guide.
Guided tour of the 16th Street Baptist Church. This church became known around the world when a bomb exploded, killing four young girls attending Sunday school and injuring more than 20 other members of the congregation.
- 3:30 pm Admission to the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute. The number one attraction in Birmingham, this historic museum traces the journey of the civil rights advocates of the 50's and 60's who changed the course of American History.
Visit Kelly Ingram Park where, in 1963, African Americans gathered in the public park to march four blocks to City Hall to oppose racial discrimination. Walk through the now peaceful park to see artists' interpretations.
- 7:45 pm Dinner at Golden Corral Buffet (3117 Lorna Road, Hoover AL 35216).
- 9:00 pm Check into your hotel.

Second Day

- 8:00 am Breakfast at your hotel and check out.
